

MD ANDERSON CANCER FELLOWSHIP

2017 call, for Associate Clinical Investigators

Fellowship Program, starting June 2017, to provide specialized training of high quality in different areas of cancer research, clinical and translational.

The training program includes a stay of 12-24 months at MD Anderson Cancer Center Houston.

Candidates: specialists in Medical Oncology, Hematology, Radiation Oncology, Surgical Oncology. Specialized Training (MIR) completed in the last three years

Candidates must propose a training program associated with a research project related with the priority areas of the call: Investigational Cancer Therapeutics (Phase I Clinical Trials Program) and personalized advanced cancer therapy

Period: 2 (1+1) years.

Continuity and promotion: interim (after the first year) and final evaluations will give access to a formal faculty position in MDACC Madrid.

Documentation required:

Each application will include:

- Curriculum vitae
- Letter of motivation (one page): including statement of applicant goals
- Letter of recommendation
- Formal Proposal of research project.
- USMLE Certificate (candidates with clinical activities, required).

Deadline for applications: May 22, 2017.

Contact: info.fundacion@mdanderson.es ref.: cancer fellowship